

DEPARTMENT OF OTOLARYNGOLOGY – HEAD AND NECK SURGERY

OTOLARYNGOLOGY – HEAD & NECK SURGEON – INVESTIGATOR

General Description	Members who direct a clinical research program, but time commitment to research less than 50%.
Time Distribution	30-40% clinical 25-30% teaching 30-40% research, administration
Clinical Activities	Clinical Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery: 2-3 days/wk
Teaching Activities	Undergraduate: 30-40 hours/yr student contact Postgraduate: in course of some, but not all, clinical activities
Research Activities	Principal investigator in clinical research Holds peer-reviewed operating grant or major industry grant Publishes at least two peer-reviewed papers or review articles every year
Administrative	Member of 1 or 2 departmental/hospital committees

University of Toronto Policies and Procedures

The Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgeon – Investigator will be governed by the terms of the Procedures Manual for Clinical Faculty (<http://www.utoronto.ca/govcncl/pap/policies/clinical.pdf>). This includes access to: (1) the Academic Clinical Tribunal for issues arising from an actual or apprehended breach of academic freedom where the matter has not been resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant by the practice plan or Hospital, and (2) the Clinical Faculty Grievance Review Panel for binding resolution of those disputes where it is alleged that the Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgeon – Investigator appointed under the Policy on Appointment of Academic Administrators acting in his/her University capacity failed to follow applicable University policies or procedures. It is acknowledged that the Clinical Relations Committee of the Faculty of Medicine may, from time-to-time, make recommendations to revise clinical faculty policies and procedures.